The player action with this technology will be especially pronounced in the AI's prioritized passes, as the system will make informed choices of the pass that is most efficient for the player, and the receiver to receive the pass. A new "You're the Ref" feature will allow the referee to see defenders trying to get a last-ditch tackle onto the ball carrier before the foul. This supports action from the football pitch rather than the technical aspects of the gameplay. "With FIFA the opportunities to master any aspect of the game are endless - the accessibility and ease of which we can tap into the game's most legendary attributes allows us to unlock a world of possibilities," said Paul Melia, Head of FIFA. "By utilizing the power of motion capture in FIFA, we've been able to develop the most immersive football gaming experience yet. We believe this technology will excite and motivate players of all levels, making FIFA a singular and immersive football game for gamers of all ages."

FIFA is played by people from all over the world, in stadiums, pitches, gyms and living rooms. All clubs feature player likeness, skin colour and hairstyle. Fans have unique, authentic and diverse team man-fests to cheer on. Players dribble, pass and shoot accurately, and gain yards only with skillful dribbling, positioning and decision making. Shot selection and precision shooting dominate every minute of gameplay. The gameplay engine sees that the ball goes where players go and actuates the right physics dynamics. In-play physics allows players to intercept the ball at any time, push other players off the ball and contest any ball down the pitch. Every pitch is richly detailed, including grass, chalk markings, advertising, goalposts, the crease and crowd. Features Powered by Football EA SPORTS FIFA 22 brings the game even closer to the real thing with fundamental gameplay advances and a new season of innovation across every mode. Teammates can now crossfield, and receive the ball with their outside foot for the first time. Traditional short passing options have been enhanced, including the addition of the flickshot and the ball turning into a kamikaze attack when controlled by a player. In addition, new driven runs, attacking passes and celebrations provide more ways to showcase creativity and personality. EA SPORTS™ FIFA Ultimate Team Build your Ultimate Team from over 700 players from top European leagues, including Barcelona and Bayern Munich, as well as more than 250 from the Japanese, South Korean and Chinese leagues. Better than ever before, you will be able to keep the strongest players from more than 20 clubs, across eight different teams, which means you will always have the best players in your team. Plus, the new FIFA Points system gives you a fast and easy way to build and manage your squad, with new rewards in every category. In-Game Innovation Gameplay has been improved across the pitch, the pitch has been improved and the crowd has been improved. New control methods make it easier and more intuitive for players to
