I have recently released Gratio Games' brand new game "The Elden Ring" for Vita and I had a lot of fun while playing. I think that one thing that stood out was the amount of choices that the game gives the player. The game can be controlled easily with the touch controls and it is a nice change of pace from the standard button mapping that most games have these days. From a gamer's standpoint, it is a fun game that has a dynamic combat system that doesn't seem to get old. Check out Ultrasnipe's review of "The Elden Ring
