

A: I think these question has already been asked here before. This issue looks to be solved here. It may be that the script is not set to run as a service, on Windows. (2d Cir.1976). The reasoning of Moore has been adopted and applied by a number of other Circuits. See, e.g., Western Stem v. Fidelity & Deposit Co., 995 F.2d 1518, 1524 (10th Cir.1993) (recognizing the "better view" that a claim against a surety is separate and distinct from the claim against the principal); Chateaugay Corp. v. Fidelity and Deposit Co. of Maryland, 922 F.2d *1351 338, 341 n. 3 (2d Cir.1990) (stating that "suits against a surety on a bond are in no way precluded" from being brought separately against the principal and the surety); Fidelity and Deposit Co. of Maryland v. Bourland, 453 F.Supp. 1072, 1074 (E.D.Tex.1978) ("[I]t has long been the settled law in this circuit... that, absent an express agreement otherwise, suit on a bond against a surety is a valid independent claim.") (citing cases), aff'd, 577 F.2d 622 (5th Cir.), cert. denied, 439 U.S. 931, 99 S.Ct. 321, 58 L.Ed.2d 325 (1978); accord, Transamerica Insurance Co. v. South, 975 F.2d 321, 326 (7th Cir.1992) (explaining that "most courts have held that suits on bonds are not precluded or barred by the principal's bankruptcy"); In re Amherst-Pelham Regional School District, 811 F.2d 1032, 1033-34 (5th Cir.1987) (agreeing with "the majority rule" that "two separate claims are presented by a suit on a bond"); In re Abilene Southern Ry. Co., 725 F.2d 996, 998 (5th Cir.1984) (observing that there is "a clear split of authority on whether claims against a surety may be separately adjudicated"); In re National Steel Service Center, 268 B.R. 689, 697 (Bankr.N.D.Ill.
